Readings Mark 10:13-16

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.” And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Reflection

Lee George

Song God, Make Us Agents of Joyful Rebellion

1. God, make us agents of joyful rebellion,
called to resist sullen empires of fear.
Fueled not by hatred but love for all people,
we stand united, assured you are here.
3. Laughing in answer to snarling derision,
we dance to counter oppression and pain.
Feasting together despite our divisions,
we pledge ourselves to Christ’s upside-down reign.
4. God, make us agents of joyful rebellion,
called to sing out till our faith is made sight.
Fueled by the stories of saintly subversives,
we stand united, your justice our light.
