Prelude

Welcome

Reading/Prayers Peace Prayers from the Upanishads

May peace prevail everywhere.
Lead me from illusion to reality.
Lead me from darkness to light.
Lead me from death to immortality.
May all be happy.
May all be free of disease.
May we all see that which is good.
May no one suffer.
May the heavens be peaceful.
May space and the sky be peaceful.
May the earth be peaceful.
May the waters be peaceful.
May herbs bring peace.
May plants and trees be peaceful.
May the forces of nature be peaceful.
May God bring us peace.
May everyone be at peace.
We pray for peace, only peace.
May we realize that peace.
Protect us from fear.
May the people always be happy.
Remove all forms of vice and sorrow.
Give us those virtues that are ennobling.
Om. May peace prevail everywhere.

Chapel Talk “What Can I Do For Others?” Iva Patel

Song Prayer of Peace Based on a Navaho prayer

Peace before us,
peace behind us,
peace under our feet,
peace with within,
peace over us,
let all around us be peace.

(Light before us... Love before us...)
