

TRAVEL INFORMATION 2017-18

Mexico

Spring 2017 Semester

Travel Dates: Friday, January 20 and Sunday, May 14, to and from Mexico City.

Please try to arrive in Mexico City by 3:00pm. Once you have made your travel plans, please notify Margaret Anderson (anderso4@augsborg.edu) and the International Resident Assistant at our Study Center in Cuernavaca (CGEEMexico@augsborg.edu).

Summer 2017 Semester

Travel Dates – to and from Mexico City*

- Block I: May 3 and May 28
- Block II: May 24 and June 18
- Block III: June 14 and July 9
- Block IV: July 5 and July 30
- Block V: July 26 and August 20

Please try to arrive in Mexico City by 3:00pm. Once you have made your travel plans, please notify Margaret Anderson (anderso4@augsborg.edu) and the International Resident Assistant at our Study Center in Cuernavaca (CGEEMexico@augsborg.edu).

If you choose to arrive prior to your designate travel date, you will be responsible for your own ground transportation, lodging and food.

Fall 2017 Semester

Travel Dates: Thursday, August 17 and Sunday, December 10, to and from Mexico City*

Please try to arrive in Mexico City by 3:00pm. Once you have made your travel plans, please notify Margaret Anderson (anderso4@augsborg.edu) and the International Resident Assistant at our Study Center in Cuernavaca (CGEEMexico@augsborg.edu).

If you choose to arrive prior to August 17, you will be responsible for your own ground transportation, lodging and food.

Spring 2018 Semester

Travel Dates: Friday, January 19 and Sunday, May 13, to and from Mexico City*

Please try to arrive in Mexico City by 3:00pm. Once you have made your travel plans, please notify Margaret Anderson (anderso4@augsborg.edu) and the International Resident Assistant at our Study Center in Cuernavaca (CGEEMexico@augsborg.edu).

If you choose to arrive prior to January 19, you will be responsible for your own ground transportation, lodging and food.

Namibia

Spring Semester 2017

Travel dates: January 14 (to Johannesburg) and May 6 (from Windhoek)

We have arranged with our travel partner, STA Travel, for the flights to and from southern Africa from Washington D.C. STA can also make connections with your city of origin for an additional fee.

Due the regional travel during the program, for logistical reasons we ask that all students reserve these flights. If you are unwilling or unable to book your flight to and from the region with our travel agency, you should at the least book the Cape Town - Windhoek flight with them so that all students are on the same flight. You should also try to time your arrival at Johannesburg to correspond as closely as possible to the arrival of the group flight.

To make your reservations

We encourage you to book your flights as soon as possible.

Fall Semester 2017

Travel dates: Depart U.S. August 12 (to Johannesburg) and December 2 (from Windhoek)*

We have arranged with our travel partner, STA Travel, for the flights to and from southern Africa from Atlanta Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport. STA can also make connections with your city of origin for an additional fee.

Due the regional travel during the program, for logistical reasons we ask that all students reserve these flights. If you are unwilling or unable to book your flight to and from the region with our travel agency, you should at the least book the Cape Town - Windhoek flight with them so that all students are on the same flight. You should also try to time your arrival at Johannesburg to correspond as closely as possible to the arrival of the group flight.

For more information and to make reservations

If you choose to arrive prior to August 13, you will be responsible for your own ground transportation, lodging and food.

Spring Semester 2018

Travel dates: January 14 (to Johannesburg) and May 5 (from Windhoek)*

We will be arranging with our travel partner, STA Travel, for the flights to and from southern Africa from Washington D.C. STA can also make connections with your city of origin for an additional fee.

Due the regional travel during the program, for logistical reasons we ask that all students reserve these flights. If you are unwilling or unable to book your flight to and from the region with our travel agency, you should at the least book the Cape Town - Windhoek flight with them so that all students are on the same flight. You should also try to time your arrival at Johannesburg to correspond as closely as possible to the arrival of the group flight.

Itineraries and information about reserving flights will be provided at a later date.

If you choose to arrive prior to January 15, you will be responsible for your own ground transportation, lodging and food.

Central America

Spring Semester 2017

Travel Dates: January 23 (to Guatemala City) and May 13 (from Managua)

We have arranged with our travel partner, STA Travel, for the flights to and from Central America. STA can also make connections with your city of origin for an additional fee.

Due the regional travel during the program, for logistical reasons we ask that all students reserve these flights. If you are unwilling or unable to book your flight to and from the region with our travel agency, you should at the least book the Guatemala City-San Jose flight with them so that all students are on the same flight. You should plan to arrive in Guatemala City no later than 8:00pm.

To make your reservations see: <http://b2b.statravel.com/augsburgcollege.html>

Fall Semester 2017

Travel Dates: August 21 (to Guatemala City) and December 9 (from Managua)*

We will be arranging with our travel partner, STA Travel, for the flights to and from Central America. STA can also make connections with your city of origin for an additional fee.

Due the regional travel during the program, for logistical reasons we ask that all students reserve these flights. If you are unwilling or unable to book your flight to and from the region with our travel agency, you should at the least book the Guatemala City-San Jose flight with them so that all students are on the same flight. You should plan to arrive in Guatemala City no later than 8:00pm.

Itineraries and information about reserving flights will be provided at a later date.

If you choose to arrive prior to August 21, you will be responsible for your own ground transportation, lodging and food.

Spring Semester 2018

Travel Dates: Monday, January 22 (to Guatemala City) and May 12 (from Managua)*

We will be arranging with our travel partner, STA Travel, for the flights to and from Central America. STA can also make connections with your city of origin for an additional fee.

Due the regional travel during the program, for logistical reasons we ask that all students reserve these flights. If you are unwilling or unable to book your flight to and from the region with our travel agency, you should at the least book the Guatemala City-San Jose flight with them so that all students are on the same flight. You should plan to arrive in Guatemala City no later than 8:00pm.

Itineraries and information about reserving flights will be provided at a later date.

If you choose to arrive prior to January 22, you will be responsible for your own ground transportation, lodging and food.