

A proud tradition of excellence, on and off the field

FAST FACTS

- 460 student-athletes (nearly 23 percent of day students)
- Professional grade facilities: Turf field with video scoreboard for football, men's and women's soccer, softball, and lacrosse (covered with a bubble for year-round use); two sheets of ice on campus for men's and women's hockey
- Three teams qualified for NCAA post-season play: men's basketball, men's hockey, and wrestling
- Three Auggies earned Academic All-American honors: Sam Bennyhoff, wrestling; Nate Flynn, men's hockey; Christopher Lemke, football (CoSIDA Academic All-District); and Victory Gliva, wrestling (Augsburg tied with MIT for the most by any school in the men's at-large category: 12 sports)
- Named Champion School by Special Olympics Minnesota (2016–17)
- 4,315 total hours of community service

A-Club

For 55 years, A-Club community members have supported Auggie athletics and received benefits like:

- An A-Club Member Pass, which grants two tickets to home athletic contests, excluding playoff games
- Members-only access to social gatherings, like pre-game tailgates and half-time gatherings
- Awesome Auggie athletics swag and raffles

Hearty thanks to members of A-Club, who support Auggie student-athletes.

Recent Women's Athletics Highlights

Five women's teams made playoffs in 2017-18

Women's soccer: MIAC regular season champions (2014, 2017); playoff champions (2014, 2016); NCAA Tournament participants (2014, 2016)

Women's cross country: Taybri Irving became the first Augsburg woman to claim the MIAC individual championship (2016)

Women's lacrosse: First collegiate varsity program in Minnesota (2014); qualified for MWLC conference playoffs for all three seasons (2016, 2017, 2018)

Women's basketball: Qualified for the only two MIAC playoff appearances in school history in the past four years (2014-15, 2016-17)

Recent Men's Athletics Highlights

Football: 11 student-athletes selected for All-MIAC team.

Men's cross country: USTFCCCA Division III All-Academic

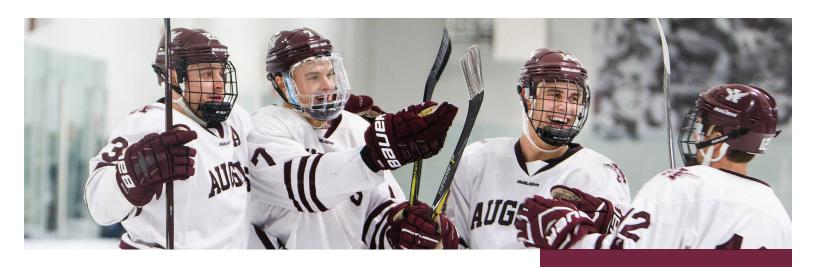

Team: 3.46 team GPA

Men's golf: Third place at MIAC Championship and MIAC Rookie of the Year (Levi Hauser)

Men's basketball: MIAC Champions and 21-8 overall record (2017-18)

Men's hockey: MIAC Playoff Champions, NCAA Playoff Quarterfinalists, and 19-10 overall record (2017–18)

Wrestling: Second place at NCAA Division III National Championships, first place at NCAA Division III Upper Midwest Regional, first place at NWCA Division III National Duals

MEET AUGGIE STUDENT-ATHLETES

EMMANUEL EGBUJOR '18

Men's track and field Earned six All-American honors Major: Computer Science

Hometown: Brooklyn Park, Minnesota

LAUREN JENNINGS '18

Women's soccer Named All-Region and Scholar All-Region Major: Marketing and Management Hometown: Rochester, Minnesota

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR Jeff Swenson '79

Since arriving in 1975 as a first-year student, Jeff Swenson has built a storied legacy at Augsburg University. Swenson was a national wrestling champion, spent 25 seasons as one of the most successful amateur wrestling coaches in the U.S., and became Augsburg's athletic director in 2001.

For questions, contact Vice President of Institutional Advancement Heather Riddle at riddle@augsburg.edu or 612-330-1177.

4 ways to support Augsburg athletics

- Join A-Club. Enjoy special events, admission to home games, and other rewards.
- Make a gift in support of a team. Earn coaches' appreciation when this donation makes an immediate impact.
- Greate an endowed fund for a team. A gift of $25,000 or more creates an endowed fund that provides a team ongoing support. Augsburg draws 4.5% of the value of the fund each year and makes it available to coaches for priority needs.
- 4 Endow a coaching position.
 Gifts to endow coaching staff typically begin at $1 million and include naming an existing coaching position. Funds help recruit and retain talent.

Cheer on the Auggies

- Gifts can be made today or planned for the future. Estate gifts to Augsburg Athletics are especially important. Now is the time to give.
- Attend a sporting event and cheer on the Auggies. See athletics.augsburg.edu for upcoming games.