Study Abroad Scholarships

Center for Global Education, Augsburg College (CGE)

$500 - $7000
The Center for Global Education offers a range of scholarships and financial aid to students with demonstrated financial need and whose participation in a semester or summer academic program contributes to a community of colleagues that values a variety of cultures and backgrounds.

- Auggie Tuition Discount is available to all Augsburg Students doing a CGE semester or academic year. $1000 automatic discount per semester. In addition students may apply for the following…

- The Diversity Scholarship is for students who have not traditionally been represented in study abroad. Awards cover up to 50% of the cost of a semester program abroad and up to $1,000 off the cost of a summer academic program.

- International Partners & Exchange (IPE) programs connect Augsburg with universities in Europe and Asia and allows for a discount of $1000. There are no forms to submit for this discount.

- Need-Based Financial Aid is available for students with demonstrated financial need. Awards cover up to 50% of the cost of a semester program abroad and up to $1,000 off the cost of a summer academic program.

- Returnee Discount: Automatic discount off a second semester program for students who combine two semester programs during their college career. There are no forms to submit for this discount.

For more information visit http://www.augsburg.edu/global/cost-and-scholarships/

American-Scandinavian Foundation

Up to $5000 for research in Scandinavia, upon completion of an undergraduate degree by the start of the project. Also fellowship grants up to $23,000. See www.amscan.org for details.

Association of International Exchange, Japan (AIEJ) Scholarship

Monthly cash award of $800 and paid airfare
For students studying in Japan through an IES program.

Bridging Scholarships for Study Abroad in Japan

Association of Teachers of Japanese Bridging Project Clearinghouse
American students participating in semester or year-long study abroad programs in Japan are eligible for scholarships for spring 2009. Undergraduate students majoring in any field of study are eligible. Recipients will receive a stipend of $2,500 for semester programs, and $4,000 for year long programs.
http://www.aatj.org/studyabroad/scholarships.html

Council for International Education Exchange (CIEE)

John E. Bowman Travel Grant (amount varies); Robert B. Bailey Scholarship $500-1,500, for Students self-identified as belonging to an under-represented group in study abroad; Department of Education Scholarship Program in China $1,000-8,000; Jennifer Ritzman Scholarship for Studies in Tropical Biology $1,000; CIEE International Study Program Scholarships for $1,000-2,000.
www.ciee.org/study/scholarships.aspx

Critical Language Scholarships

The United States Department of State and the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC) are pleased to announce the availability of overseas scholarships for intensive summer language institutes in eleven critical need foreign languages for summer study.
https://www.clscholarship.org/

Finlandia Foundation

$500-5,000
Students studying subjects related to Finnish culture receive special consideration. February 1 deadline for following academic year.
www.finlandiafoundation.org

Foundation for Global Scholars

$500-$1500
Eligibility requires that the student is enrolled in a College or University in North America and that the credits being earned abroad go towards the specific degree being earned. The student must be a US or Canadian Citizen and time abroad must be spent in one of 25 different countries listed on the website.
www.foundationforglobalscholars.org

FundforEducationAbroad(FEA).
FEA was created in order to open doors for deserving education abroad students. FEA will award funds for students planning to study abroad on any academically rigorous programs. Designed by our Advisory Board, FEA scholarships are intended to meet the financial needs of students who might not be eligible for government grants or existing funds limited to specific programs or groups of students. November deadline for following academic year.
www.fundforeducationabroad.org

German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)

Offers scholarships to students seeking to study at a German University, carry out a senior thesis, or participate in an internship in Germany. Periods of study awarded are either 4 or 10 months in the German academic year (Oct.-July). Students receive a monthly stipend plus more funds to help pay for travel, research, and health insurance. Visit www.daad.org for more information.

Gilman Scholarship

The Gilman aims to broaden the student population that studies abroad by supporting undergraduates who have been traditionally under-represented in U.S. study abroad and those with high financial need. To be eligible students must be receiving a Federal Pell Grant at the time of application and cannot study abroad in a country currently under a U.S. travel Department of State Travel Warning or in Cuba. Awards up to $5000. Once awarded the student can then apply for an additional Critical Need Language Supplement award for $3,000. Additional summer scholarships for all majors are now available also for 2010-2011.
www.iie.org/gilman

Go Overseas Study Abroad New Zealand Scholarship

If you are interested in studying abroad in New Zealand Spring, Summer or Fall 2015. You will be eligible to get scholarship up to full tuition ($15,000 NZD) and will be eligible for the flight to be covered through STA Travel. Deadline: Oct. 15 2014.

High North Fellowship Program

Scholarships available to students studying in Norway at the following schools: Harstad University, University of Nordland, and University of Tromsø. For more information visit:
http://www.studyinnorway.no/highnorth
Study Abroad Scholarships

IFSA Foundation
Need-based awards with preference given to undergraduates Junior standing minorities and students from non-traditional majors. Students awarded scholarships up to $6,000. www.ifsa-butler.org/apply

Institute for International Education (IIE)

Institute for the International Education of Students (IES)
Merit-Based Scholarships up to $3,000. See their website for a full list of details on their merit scholarships in the following categories: Asia, Cross-Cultural, Fine Arts, Foreign Language, High Achievement, William Gaines Endowed, John Gearn Scholarship, South America, Robert McNeil Business, International Relations, Leadership, Science, William Dwyer, Urban Issues. www.iesabroad.org

Institute for International Public Policy (IIPP)
Fellowship Program
Scholarship opportunities for people seeking government positions are available through this fellowship program. See their website for information of their scholarship funds: www.ucfosp.org/IIPP

Knowledge Exchange Institute (KEI)
KEI offers a $1,000 discount for Augsburg College students studying abroad through KEI for at least a semester. Contact Augsburg Abroad for more information.

Lakselaget
Scholarships are available for women who desire to study in Norway. www.lakselaget.org

Lilly Lorenzen Scholarship
Study in Sweden
$1500-2500 supplementary support for scholarly and creative studies to be carried out in Sweden. Scholarship deadline is May 1st. For applications and info: http://www.americanswedishinst.org/ASI/Scholarships.html

Lund Fund Scholarship – Sons of Norway
For any study abroad experiences at accredited institutions. Two $1,500 scholarships are awarded annually. Deadline for application is May 1. Contact foundation@sofn.com with any questions.

LIVFund: Scholarships to Learn, Intern & Volunteer in Latin America
We are proud to award 2 scholarships per month in the amount of US$500 each to students studying, interning or volunteering abroad in a Latin American country. Candidates have to be 18 years or older and may apply for the LIVFund Scholarship up to 6 months in advance of their program start date. http://www.livfund.org/

Malmberg Scholarship for Study in Sweden
The Malmberg Scholarship for Study in Sweden will grant significant funding (up to $10,000) for up to one year of study or research in Sweden to a U.S. resident who is either (a) a student enrolled in a degree-granting program at an accredited college or university in the U.S. whose current study can be supplemented by time in Sweden, or (b) a qualified scholar engaged in study or research in the U.S. whose work can be enhanced by study in Sweden. Deadline: November 15, 2014. http://www.asimn.org/programs-education/scholarships

Mobility International Resources Information and scholarships
Provided by Mobility International USA National Clearinghouse on Disability and Exchange. www.miusa.org

Mondale Scholarship Program for Study Abroad in Japan
The Japan America Society of Minnesota (JASM) will award the Mondale Scholarship Program for Study Abroad in Japan, which promotes cultural exchange between North America and Japan through a combination of study and travel. The selection committee has the discretion to award up to three $1,000 scholarships or two $1,500 scholarships. The awards are specifically to be used for travel to or within Japan before, during, or after the student’s specified term(s) of study. http://www.mn-japan.org/?110210

National Security Education Program (NSEP)
Students who wish to obtain language and culture training in areas considered in short supply by the U.S. government. Excludes Western Europe, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Six weeks of study or longer. Awards are up to $8,000 for summer, $10,000 for semester; $20,000 academic year. Service requirement upon completion. www.nsep.gov

P Fund Scholarships for GLBT Students
GLBT students or students from a GLBT identified family and is a legal resident of Minnesota may be eligible for this award through PFund. Scholarships range from $2000-5,000. www.PFundOnline.org

Rotary International
Ambassadorial Scholarships. Awards available for language study is $11,000 for 3months and $16,000 for six months. Awards for academic study for one year is $24,000. Students can apply for up to 2 consecutive years of funding. Check with local Rotary Clubs for scholarship opportunities and go to their national website at www.rotary.org

The School for International Training (SIT)
The School for International Training (SIT) provides up to 100 scholarships to African American, Hispanic American and Native American students who choose Turkey as a study abroad provider. SIT provides scholarships. The awards are specifically to be used for travel to or within Turkey. Scholarships range from $2,000 to $2,500 per student. For more information on their general scholarships and the Sally Bragg Baker Scholarship. Awards are $500-5,000. http://www.sit.edu/studyabroad/721.htm

Sons of Norway Foundation
A fund which promotes cultural exchange between North America and Norway. Requires applicants to be 18 years or older and have a plan of studies to focus on exploring their interest in Norwegian heritage or in modern Norway at an institution of higher learning, or be members of the Sons of Norway. For more information visit: http://www.sofn.com/foundation/

Study Abroad Scholarships in Turkey for American Minority Students
The Turkish Coalition of America (TCA) has a diverse array of scholarship programs that support its educational mission. One of these programs provides up to 100 scholarships to African American, Hispanic American and Native American students who choose Turkey to study abroad. TCA Scholarships range from $500 to $2,000 per student. For more information, or to apply, please visit: http://www.tca-america.org/scholarships/minority.htm

Syracuse University Abroad
This study abroad provider has scholarship opportunities for all offered programs. The Tuition Differential Grant (up to $4,000), Merit Based Scholarship (up to $1,200 based on G.P.A.), the Need Based Study Abroad Grants (SAG) (up to $2,500 based on FAFSA or IRS 1040 forms), all have specific requirements that are open to all programs. There are also grants for up to $3,000 available for studies in Beijing (fall & spring) and Santiago (fall). For questions about these scholarships and financial aid through SUA programs please email asloanep@syr.edu. Ask Augsburg Abroad about student discount.

Turkish Coalition of America
Scholarships available for African American, Hispanic and Native American students studying abroad in Turkey. Scholarships range from $500-$2000
Study Abroad Scholarships

depending on the student and time spent abroad.  http://www.tc-america.org/scholarship/minority.html#about

The Vincent L. Hawkinson Foundation
The goal of the scholarship is to encourage students who have already demonstrated a commitment to peace and justice to strive for peace and justice both in their educational pursuits and in their professional lives.  $4000-$5000 awarded.  http://www.hawkinsonfoundation.org

Other Funding Ideas
Students have often been successful in raising money for their study abroad through one of the following paths:

- Crowd Sourcing, such as Indiegogo, Razoo
- Garage Sale Donations from local church or businesses
- Independent Fundraising such as a bake sale, art sale, car wash, etc.

Study Abroad Funding Search Engines
www.studyabroadfunding.org
www.diversityabroad.com/scholarships
http://umabroad.umn.edu/financial/scholarships/index.html