Medieval Minnesota is a unique summer learning experience that re-imagines life in the Middle Ages.

In addition to medieval history, students learn to develop a medieval character, to build a medieval costume, to play tunes on medieval instruments, to juggle, and to perform authentic medieval stories.

The camp is geared toward training students for an on-site graduation performance to be held at the renowned Minnesota Renaissance Festival.

WHO DO YOU WANT TO BE IN THE MIDDLE AGES?

Fill out the application form to the right. Then, on a separate sheet of paper, write a short “biography” (no more than 500 words) of the medieval character you’d like to develop.

Will you be a noble knight? A troubadour? A lady of the court? Be sure to include any special skills you already have (like juggling), or skills you would like to learn. Your essay will help us tailor the camp to you and your character.

Cost for the camp is $750. This includes room and board, and all materials. Students who register before April 1, will receive a $50 discount.

Return this application with a deposit of $100. Keep a photo-copy for your records.
