

Faith and the Imagination: The Call to the Arts

Imagine
Believe. Create

Vocatio Chapel Welcomes ...

Christian Nielsen '99
Music Therapy Alumnus

Wednesday, January 23, 2013

10:20 a.m.

Hoversten Chapel, Foss Center

Christian Nielsen is a board certified music therapist, performer, composer, speaker, and stroke survivor. He has provided music therapy to those in hospice and palliative care for more than a decade. He also works with grief programs and seniors in wellness and memory-care programs and does intergenerational programming for ages 1 to 101. Nielsen has performed and spoken in many churches large and small throughout Minnesota. He particularly enjoys sharing stories of his experiences working with those at the end of life, having witnessed many powerful things and learned much from his clients facing their final days. Nielsen incorporates music and healing from many diverse cultures into his practice of music therapy.

Following chapel, there will be a luncheon for conversation with Christian Nielsen.
To attend the luncheon, RSVP to Lonna Field at fieldl@augsborg.edu.

AUGSBURG COLLEGE