AUGSBURG COLLEGE

ADVENT VESPERS

PRESIDENT'S BRUNCH AND DINNER

Saturday, December 5

CELEBRATING THE GENEROSITY
OF AUGSBURG COLLEGE DONORS

ADVENT VESPERS SOCIETY BRUNCH

New this year, a special event to honor leadership giving society donors.

11 a.m.-1 p.m.

Hoversten Chapel, Foss Center
Augsburg College Campus
625 22nd Avenue South, Minneapolis

Sven Oftedal Society

Donors who have included Augsburg in their estate plans are recognized in the Sven Oftedal Society. They have created hundreds of scholarships and funding for strategic initiatives touching almost every aspect of an Augsburg education.

Maroon and Silver Society

Augsburg recognizes donors' generosity in supporting its mission with unrestricted annual gifts of $1,000 or more. The Maroon and Silver Society has grown to exceed more than 400 alumni, parents, faculty, staff, and friends of the College.

Free valet parking available in front of Foss Center.

ADVENT VESPERS WORSHIP SERVICE

Celebrate the Christmas season with music and praise.

2 p.m.

Central Lutheran Church
333 South 12th Street, Minneapolis
Reserved seating on the floor

Advent Vespers is one of the largest worship services in the Twin Cities with more than 10,000 attendees spanning two days of services. Featuring 300 participants including choirs, instrumentalists, readers, and a full liturgical party, this service is a meaningful way to enter the Advent season.

CAMPAIGN CELEBRATION DINNER

The capstone event recognizing the leadership of the Campaign for the Hagfors Center.

4:30 p.m. Reception | 5:30 p.m. Dinner

Hoversten Chapel, Foss Center
Augsburg College Campus
625 22nd Avenue South, Minneapolis

A special event to recognize the successful completion of the largest capital campaign in Augsburg's history, the Campaign for the Hagfors Center for Science, Business, and Religion, and the people who made it possible, including Regents, volunteers, and donors.

Free valet parking available in front of Foss Center.
