

try setting? Spend your summer living and working at camp!”

Attend summer job camp fair on Wednesday, February 9, 2022. Camp representatives are looking to hire students to work over the summer with youth. Jobs vary from camp counselors, activity instructors, kitchen help, etc. Housing and food is included, as well as, as a stipend.

A few reasons why you should work at a camp:

*Camp will build teamwork skills like no other

*Grow in your faith

*You learn how to be a role model

*The kids will inspire you as much as you inspire them, if not more.

*It's a fun yet challenging summer gig

*You will make life-long friends

*New Experiences

WELCOME AND INVOCATION

HYMN

"Arise, Shine"

by Ruth Cunningham

"Arise, shine, for your light has come!
And the glory of God has dawned upon you."

SCRIPTURE

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Alternative Spring Break: Join Pastor John Schwehn and Tori Remer and other Auggies on a service trip to Albuquerque, New Mexico over spring break, March 12-19, 2022.

Albuquerque, New Mexico, is one of the oldest cities in the United States. It has a unique multicultural history and heritage with Native American and Hispanic and Latino cultural influences. The city is located in north central New Mexico near the Sandia Mountains.

While in Albuquerque, we will be partnering with Service Learning Camps. The trip will include community service projects, time for reflection, and visits to local attractions.

Cost: $275, includes most lodging, transportation, and most meals. Please register by February 10, 2022. Please let us know if the cost presents a barrier to participation for you. Sign up early and get your $100 deposit in as we have a limited number of spots.

Questions? Contact Pastoral Intern, Tori Remer at remerv@augsborg.edu or Pastor John Schwehn at schwehn@augsborg.edu or stop by Campus Ministries in Foss 104. The trip is available as an Augsburg Experience. Please indicate on the online registration form if you would like this to be an Augsburg Experience and complete the Augsburg Experience form.
