

TANCE IN PERILOUS TIMES

The Augsburg University Choirs in collaboration with Augsburg Campus Ministry, Interfaith at Augsburg, Augsburg Department of History, and Augsburg Department of Religion and Philosophy Invite you to a musico-historical contemplation for the here-and-now.

February 18, 2022, 7:30-9:00 p.m.

Hoversten Chapel, Foss Center, Augsburg University

At Yad Vashem, Israel's Holocaust Remembrance Center, the Garden of the Righteous Among the Nations honors thousands of Gentiles who during WWII risked themselves to save the lives of Jews from Nazi persecution. How did these people cultivate such courage? How do their experiences bear on our own place and time? Who are today's Righteous Among the Nations, risking themselves to save the innocent? How can we support them or number ourselves among them?

Join our presenters to learn from the stories of remarkable humanitarians from distinct countries and circumstances. History, poetry, and song will connect their lives with contemporary society in Minnesota.

PRELUDE

WELCOME/INTRODUCTION

OPENING SONG "Guide My Feet" vs 1, 2, 3, 1 ACS 987

1 Guide my feet
2 Hold my hand
3 Stand by me while I run this race.

Guide my feet
Hold my hand
Stand by me while I run this race.

Guide my feet
Hold my hand
Stand by me while I run this race,

for I don't want to run this race in vain.

SCRIPTURE READING

Hebrews 12:1-3
The Message

Discipline in a Long-Distance Race: Do you see what this means—all these pioneers who blazed the way, all these veterans cheering us on? It means we'd better get on with it. Strip down, start running—and never quit! No extra spiritual fat, no parasitic sins. Keep your eyes on Jesus, who both began and finished this race we're in. Study how he did it. Because he never lost sight of where he was headed—that exhilarating finish in and with God—he could put up with anything along the way: Cross, shame, whatever. And now he's there, in the place of honor, right alongside God. When you find yourselves flagging in your faith, go over that story again, item by item, that long litany of hostility he plowed through. That will shoot adrenaline into your souls!
