

Chapel Series this week: Presence in Proclamation: A Series on Female-Identifying Leaders Who Participate in Proclamation

The idea is in part from Dr. Bantum's symposium at Augsburg last fall when he talked about presence saying that Mary gave the first Christian sermon and that God became present in such a way that we had to listen to her and acknowledge her, and that God wanted to learn how to be human and present from her. So, how does this show up in our world today? We will be hearing from Emmy Kegler, Jia Starr Brown, and Andrea Roske-Metcalf throughout the week of March 7-11 to try to answer this question.

OPENING SONG "I Will Trust My Body" Andrea Sorum

I will trust my body
It is made from stars and water
It is made of holy fiber and truth.
And though I did nothing wrong
I'm still paying the cost
But I will trust my body knows what to do.

I will trust my heart
Even when I feel it aching
Even when I know it's breaking
I know it's right.
Though I forget my own song
Still my heart beats so strong
So I will trust my heart knows what to do.

I will trust the Mother
Who is far beyond my knowing
Who gives all life Her holiness and love.
And when I only have the faith
To get up for one more day
I trust the mother knows what to do.

Used by permission.

SCRIPTURE READING Luke 1:26-38

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?" The angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren. For nothing will be impossible with God." Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.
