READINGS

"Vocation does not come from willfulness. It comes from listening. I must listen to my life and try to understand what it is truly about - quite apart from what I would like it to be about - or my life will never represent anything real in the world, no matter how earnest my intentions.

That insight is hidden in the word vocation itself, which is rooted in the Latin for "voice." Vocation does not mean a goal that I pursue. It means a calling that I hear. Before I can tell my life what I want to do with it, I must listen to my life telling me who I am. I must listen for the truths and values at the heart of my own identity, not the standards by which I must live - but the standards by which I cannot help but live if I am living my own life."

From Let Your Life Speak, by Parker Palmer

Matthew 23:11-12

Let the greatest among you be the servant of all. For whoever makes himself great shall be humbled and whoever humbles himself shall be made great.

SENDING SONG "There is work to be done"
by Sarah Nutting of MaMuse

Pt. 1:
These hands are strong
This heart is wide
This mind, this mind is wise.
These hands are strong
This heart is wide
I am on, on your side.

Pt. 2:
There is work to be done
There is work to be done
With these hands, this heart, this mind
There is work to be done
There is work to be done
I am on, on your side.
