

Wednesday Night Communion

Join us tonight at 8:00 pm in Hoversten. We will be having a calm reflective open-ended service that is flexible to student wants and needs. There will be tea lights and music will be open mic with students leading songs as they feel moved to do so.

Friday Prayer (Jummah): 1:30 pm in Hoversten Chapel.

Announcements

Baccalaureate and Interfaith Sending - In person this year!

At the end of the school year, Campus Ministry holds two special services for graduating seniors.

The Baccalaureate Service is a Christian service of celebration with music and word, held for the graduating class and their families, celebrating the completion of your studies at Augsburg. This year the service will be Sunday, April 24, @ 11am in Hoversten Chapel, Foss Center. Graduating students should wear their cap and gown and may sit with their family or guests in any available seats. This year President Paul Pribbenow will give the homily and we will join with the Trinity Lutheran Congregation. At the Baccalaureate service, graduates will receive a blessing blanket.

Interfaith Sending: Graduating students of all religious and non-religious identities are invited to a virtual interfaith service on Thursday, April 21 at 6:30 pm, celebrating your educational journey. This short service will be a special time of reflection and blessing. Graduating students of all religious and non-religious identities are invited to this interfaith service in Hoversten Chapel. This 45-minute service will be a special time of reflection and blessing. This service is led by the Interfaith Scholar Cohort. Blessing blankets will also be given at the Interfaith Sending. (One blanket per graduate, please).

WELCOME/INVOCATION

OPENING SONG "Here I Am, Lord" ELW #574

READING One or Two Things
by Mary Oliver from Dream Work (1986)

1

Don't bother me.
I've just been born.

2

The butterfly's loping flight carries it through the country of the leaves delicately, and well enough to get it where it wants to go, wherever that is, stopping here and there to fuzzle the damp throats of flowers and the black mud; up and down it swings, frenzied and aimless; and sometimes for long delicious moments it is perfectly lazy, riding motionless in the breeze on the soft stalk of some ordinary flower.

3

The god of dirt came up to me many times and said so many wise and delectable things, I lay on the grass listening
to his dog voice,
crow voice,
frog voice; now,
he said, and now,
and never once mentioned forever,

4

which has nevertheless always been,
like a sharp iron hoof,
at the center of my mind.

5

One or two things are all you need to travel over the blue pond, over the deep roughage of the trees and through the stiff flowers of lightning-- some deep memory of pleasure, some cutting knowledge of pain.

6

But to lift the hoof!
For that you need an idea.

7

For years and years I struggled just to love my life. And then the butterfly
rose, weightless, in the wind.
"Don't love your life
too much," it said,
and vanished into the world.
