Uncovering Vocation: A series highlighting the vocations of Augsburg staff and faculty. Vocation is a term we use a lot around Augsburg. It can be vague. I can mean different things to different people. It can feel elusive and slippery. Come and hear some of your favorite members of Augsburg University's staff and faculty as they share stories of their own vocations on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month. Together we can start uncovering vocation in all our lives.

SCRIPTURE READING Luke 15:1-10

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, “This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So he told them this parable: “Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’ Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. “Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’ Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”
