INTRODUCTION Jeremy Myers

READING Wild Geese by Mary Oliver

You do not have to be good.
You do not have to walk on your knees
For a hundred miles through the desert, repenting. You only have to let the soft animal of your body
love what it loves.
Tell me about despair, yours, and I will tell you mine. Meanwhile the world goes on.
Meanwhile the sun and the clear pebbles of the rain are moving across the
landscapes,
over the prairies and the deep trees,
the mountains and the rivers.
Meanwhile the wild geese, high in the clean blue air, are heading home again.
Whoever you are, no matter how lonely,
the world offers itself to your imagination,
calls to you like the wild geese, harsh and exciting — over and over announcing your place
in the family of things.
in the family of things.

Uncovering Vocation: A series highlighting the vocations of Augsburg staff and faculty. Vocation is a term we use a lot around Augsburg. It can be vague. I can mean different things to different people. It can feel elusive and slippery. Come and hear some of your favorite members of Augsburg University's staff and faculty as they share stories of their own vocations on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month. Together we can start uncovering vocation in all our lives.
