WORSHIP LEADERS

Reflection: Gabby Allen, American Indian Student Services Program Manager

Presiding: Rev. Babette Chatman, University Pastor

Musician: Brian De Young, Campus Ministry Musician, piano and organ

Permission to print and record music is granted by CCLI License # 11525157 and One License Print/Streaming A-723242.

Music Notes: Connor Chee is a young Navajo composer who is world-renowned for combining his classical training with his Native American heritage. The prelude is an especially poignant piece for today; Chee writes "Hózhó, often translated as 'balance and beauty, reflects the state of harmony that binds all things together in the universe. When elements of the universe fall out of balance, nature will ultimately strive to achieve homeostasis and balance once again. 'Hózhó' for Organ Solo presents a musical search for balance and beauty. At times, the music is unbalanced in form and meter, but seeks to return to a more harmonious state."

Uncovering Vocation: A series highlighting the vocations of Augsburg staff and faculty. Vocation is a term we use a lot around Augsburg. It can be vague. It can mean different things to different people. It can feel elusive and slippery. Come and hear some of your favorite members of Augsburg University's staff and faculty as they share stories of their own vocations on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month. Together we can start uncovering
