

Augsburg Associates, serving on the board and working on estate sales, events, and fundraising for the scholarship support of Augsburg students.

In addition, Sylvia was an active member of the Seward neighborhood in Minneapolis, a PTA president, and participated in the Seward community orchestra, an assembly of amateur neighborhood musicians. She also enjoyed singing at the Trinity Lutheran Church on Riverside Avenue. The couple had two children, Karin Mantor '86 and Julie Sabo '90, who also attended Augsburg.

The Sabo Center for Citizenship and Learning was founded on lessons that come from Sylvia and Martin's work. In 2014, the Center for Democracy and Citizenship and the Sabo Center were combined into a single entity, bringing together these two traditions of public service and citizen engagement. Today, the Sabo Center for Democracy and Citizenship is recognized for its innovative leadership in democracy education, public work philosophy, experiential learning, and place-based engagement.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Matthew 20:28

just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

Mark 10:44-45

and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

Luke 22: 27

For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.

John 12:26

Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

Sylvia Ann Sabo (nee Lee), 85, passed away on October 26, 2022. Sylvia attended St. Olaf College in Northfield, MN, and became a registered nurse. Her close connection to Augsburg began when she returned to Minneapolis, after spending a year as a traveling nurse, and married her husband, Martin Olav Sabo '59.

U.S. Representative Martin Olav Sabo '59, who passed away at age 78 on March 13, 2016, was a lifelong public servant who exemplified the progressive approach and personal integrity that were modeled in his Lutheran upbringing and education.

Sylvia also found meaning in service. She was a long-time member of the
