WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

READING Micah 6:1-8

Inclusive Bible

Hear now what Yhwh says: "Come, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice! Listen to Yhwh's indictment, you mountains and you enduring foundations of the earth; for Yhwh has a dispute with the people, and is putting Israel on trial. O my people, what have I done to you? How have I wearied you? Give me an answer! For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of slavery; and I sent Moses to lead you, and Aaron, and Miriam! My people, call to mind the plans devised by the ruler Balak of Moab, and how Balaam ben-Beor answered him! Remember the journey from Shittim to Gilgal, and recall how Yhwh brought you justice!" "What shall I bring when I come before Yhwh, and bow down before God on high?" you ask. "Am I to come before God with burnt offerings? With year-old calves? Will Yhwh be placated by thousands of rams or ten thousand rivers of oil? Should I offer my firstborn for my wrongdoings — the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?" Dew and rain come from God and don't depend on human agency to bring them to earth; by the same token, the remnant will have God's power and won't need to depend on other nations for their help. In other words, war will be nonexistent, so they will need neither horses and chariots for offensive battle, nor walled cities and strongholds for defense. Listen here, mortal: God has already made abundantly clear what "good" is, and what Yhwh needs from you: simply do justice, love kindness, and humbly walk with your God
