WELCOME AND INVOCATION

SCRIPTURE

1 Corinthians 11: 23-26

The Message

Let me go over with you again exactly what goes on in the Lord's Supper and why it is so centrally important. I received my instructions from the Master himself and passed them on to you. The Master, Jesus, on the night of his betrayal, took bread. Having given thanks, he broke it and said,

This is my body, broken for you.
Do this to remember me.

After supper, he did the same thing with the cup:

This cup is my blood, my new covenant with you.
Each time you drink this cup, remember me.

What you must solemnly realize is that every time you eat this bread and every time you drink this cup, you reenact in your words and actions the death of the Master. You will be drawn back to this meal again and again until the Master returns. You must never let familiarity breed contempt.

John 13: 34-35

The Message

Let me give you a new command: Love one another. In the same way I loved you, you love one another. This is how everyone will recognize that you are my disciples—when they see the love you have for each other."

SERMON "Remember"

Paul C. Pribbenow

1 My song is love un - known, my Sav - ior's love to 2 He came from his blest throne sal - va - tion to be -
3 Some - times we strew his way and his sweet prais - es
4 We cry out, we will have our dear Lord made a - me, love to the love - less shown that they might stow; the world that was his own would not its sing; re - sound - ing all the day ho - san - nas way, a mur - der - er to save, the prince of love - ly be. Oh, who am I that Sav - ior know. But, oh, my friend, my to our king. Then "Cru - ci - fy!" is life to slay. Yet cheer - ful he to for my sake my Lord should take frail flesh and die?

friend in - deed, who at my need his life did spend!
all our breath, and for his death we thirst and cry.
suf - f'ring goes that he his foes from thence might free.

5 In life no house, no home
my Lord on earth might have;
in death no friendly tomb
but what a stranger gave.
What may I say? Heav'n was his home but mine the tomb wherein he lay.

6 Here might I stay and sing—
no story so divine!
Never was love, dear King,
never was grief like thine.
This is my friend, in whose sweet praise
I all my days could gladly spend!
