ANNOUNCEMENTS

Augsburg University Student Ministries (AUSM) Fall Retreat:

Friday, October 6-7 - Augsburg University Student Ministries (AUSM) invites you for an overnight retreat at Camp Eden Wood. Camp Eden Wood is a short drive from campus, but it feels far away from everything. We will have games, worship around the campfire, and fun! We hope you can join us. We will gather in the Foss Atrium on Friday at 5:00 pm and will return by 3:00 pm on Saturday. Transportation will be provided. There is no cost to attend, but you do need to register (use QR code to register). Sign up today so we can submit any dietary requests to the camp!

“Living Stories” Series - In collaboration with the department of religion and philosophy, each month we will feature a practitioner of a different faith or spiritual tradition to share their story in chapel.

- Kelly Sherman-Conroy of the Department of Religion and Philosophy will speak about Indigenous Spirituality on September 27th
- Rabbi Matthew Goldberg of Beth El Synagogue will speak on Judaism on October 18th
- Imam Tamim Saidi of the Islamic Resource Group will speak on Islam on November 15th.

The Batalden Convocation on Applied Ethics: Wednesday, October 25, 2023 from 10am - 11 a.m. in the Foss Center, Hoversten Chapel.

Interfaith Responses to Trauma Panelists include Augsburg faculty, Prof. Iva Patel, Prof. Shayna Sheinfeld, and Prof. Najeeba Syeed. Globally, over 50% of persons experience some sort of trauma during their lifetime. The convocation panelists will share resources from their specific religious traditions (Hinduism, Islam, and Judaism) that respond to trauma and foster resilience.
