Martin Luther King, Jr. Day

This January we mark Martin Luther King, Jr. Day on January 20th. Augsburg's MLK Day of Action & Convocation is entitled, "Where Do We Go From Here: Chaos or Community?" This is the title of Dr. King's 1968 book as well as a speech he gave on August 16, 1967 to Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Atlanta. In both his book and speech, Dr. King calls upon this nation to enact equity for the poor and the neglected, and in particular for the black Americans insisting that nonviolence as the only way—to not give into to hate or violence, but to rise up together naming the truths of the past of white supremacy and racism while working together for economic and racial justice for all.

Throughout the month of January, Campus Ministry will draw upon the MLK Day at Augsburg and the work and witness of Dr. King in Daily Chapel worship. Our general Chapel theme for the month is, "Public Church: Sticking with Love." Together, we will reflect upon this theme in various ways seeking to build on the prophetic call to be a public church for the sake of the gospel. And we will do so, in part, leaning into the Dr. King's words from his speech in August of 1967: "And I say to you, I have also decided to stick to love...hate is too great a burden to bear." Amid chaos and hardship in our society, how might we as church stick to an ethic of love and embody a public witness that works for justice and peace in God's world?

Alternative Spring Break - March 14-21, 2020

Come join the fun on the Augsburg Alternative Spring Break trip this March! A group of Augsburg students, led by the Campus Ministries office, will travel to Taos, New Mexico for a week of service, cultural exploration, learning and fun. We will partner with Habitat for Humanity to help restore and build homes for families in need and learn about the challenges that face the Taos community.

For interested students, the Alternative Spring Break trip can be taken as a Augsburg Experience. Please contact Pastor Justin Lind-Ayres for more information.

To register for the Alternative Spring Break trip, click on the link below and follow the instructions. The trip is $250 (including a $100 deposit), which includes travel, most meals, and lodging.
