

Chapel Series this week: Presence in Proclamation: A Series on Female-Identifying Leaders Who Participate in Proclamation

The idea is in part from Dr. Bantum's symposium at Augsburg last fall when he talked about presence saying that Mary gave the first Christian sermon and that God became present in such a way that we had to listen to her and acknowledge her, and that God wanted to learn how to be human and present from her. So, how does this show up in our world today? We will be hearing from Emmy Kegler, Jia Starr Brown, and Andrea Roske-Metcalf throughout the week of March 7-11 to try to answer this question.

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, located just off of Lake Street in the 3rd Precinct, found itself at the heart of the explosive response to the brutal killing of George Floyd and the centuries of trauma that preceded his death. Pastors Rasmussen and Khabeb will share their insights on preaching during this time of crisis and reflect on how these experiences continue to shape their understanding of theology and ministry.

1 Jé - sus, je vou - drais te chan - ter sur ma rou - te;
1 Lord Je - sus, you shall be my song as I jour - ney;
2 Lord Je - sus, I'll praise you as long as I jour - ney.
3 As long as I live, Je - sus, make me your ser - vant,
4 I fear in the dark and the doubt of my jour - ney;

Jé - sus, je vou - drais t'an - non - cer à mes voi - sins par - tout,
I'll tell ev - 'ry - bod - y a - bout you wher - ev - er I go:
May all of my joy be a faith - ful re - flec - tion of you.
to car - ry your cross and to share all your bur - dens and tears.
but cour - age will come with the sound of your steps by my side.

car toi seul es la vie et la paix et l'a - mour:
you a - lone are our life and our peace and our love.
May the earth and the sea and the sky join my song.
For you saved me by giv - ing your bod - y and blood.
And with all of the fam - 'ly you saved by your love,

Jé - sus, je vou - drais te chan - ter sur ma rou - te.
Lord Je - sus, you shall be my song as I jour - ney.
Lord Je - sus, I'll praise you as long as I jour - ney.
As long as I live, Je - sus, make me your ser - vant.
we'll sing to your dawn at the end of our jour - ney.

READING The Lantern and the Wildflower by Kaitlin Curtice from A Rhythm of Prayer edited by Sarah Bessey

If only I could give you the gift of Adventure.
If only I could box her up
for you,
that big red bow on top,
glimmering.
But this cannot be.
Adventure is not given or earned.
She is a breath that is prayed,
a force that is found,
found in the soul of everyone
and everything.
But maybe, just maybe,
if I cannot box her up for you,
I can at least point you in her direction.
Maybe, at least,
I can tell you where I saw her last,
what I prayed when I was alone,
waiting in a forest under the pine trees,
waiting for her to appear.
Maybe that will be your Beginning.
You see, I didn't learn for a long time.
For years, as soon as I began searching.
I hid behind fear,
all the while,
Adventure waiting for me
with a lantern and wildflower.

SENDING SONG "Bread for the Journey"
Kelly Shono, guitar and vocal

Give us bread for the journey. Give us bread.
Give us bread for the journey. Give us bread.
When our legs are getting heavy
And we're hanging down our heads,
Give us bread for the journey. Give us bread.

Guide our way as we travel. Guide our way.
Guide our way as we travel. Guide our way.
With so many roads before us,
where to go is hard to say.
Guide our way as we travel. Guide our way.

Make us one with each other. Make us one.
Make us one with each other. Make us one.
All the walls we've built around us
May we learn to tear them down.
Make us one with each other. Make us one.

Lead us home to the garden. Lead us home.
Lead us home to the garden. Lead us home.
Where we'll live with all creation,
Find our place and never roam.
Lead us home to the garden. Lead us home.
