OPENING SONG "Women's Voices, Women's Witness" verses 1, 4, 5

1. Women's voices, women's witness being faithful through the years.
living lives of dedication,
finding hope amid the tears.
God, you made us in your image,
from your womb you gave us life.
With this life we give you service.
Serve your people, show your grace.

4. Celebrate the faith of Anna and the loyalty of Ruth.
Stand with Noah and her sisters seeking justice, speaking truth.
Join with us in Sarah's laughter,
Raise your voice in Miriam's song.
Women's voices, women's witness,
showing women they belong.

5. When the bread and cup we're sharing,
when we hold a neighbor's hand,
Be like Martha in our service,
be like Mary as we learn.
These our stories that surround us,
this our heritage to name.
Women's voices, women's witness:
We remember, we proclaim.

READING Mark 7:24-30

From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

"As You Go"

Andrea Sorum

As you go (as you go)
Where you go (where you go)
You will stay (you will stay)
In our hearts (in our hearts)
As you go (as you go)
Where you go (where you go)
You will stay (you will stay)
In loving arms (in loving arms)

UPCOMING IN CHAPEL

Chapel Series this week: Presence in Proclamation: A Series on Female-Identifying Leaders Who Participate in Proclamation

The idea is in part from Dr. Bantum's symposium at Augsburg last fall when he talked about presence saying that Mary gave the first Christian sermon and that God became present in such a way that we had to listen to her and acknowledge her, and that God wanted to learn how to be human and present from her. So, how does this show up in our world today? We will be hearing from Emmy Kegler, Jia Starr Brown, and Andrea Roske-Metcalf throughout the week of March 7-11 to try to answer this question.

Wednesday Night Communion

Join us for Wednesday Night Communion at 8:00 - This week is student led worship and Pastor Babette Chatman

Announcements:

The 6th Annual Fosdick Lecture on Preaching PREACHING IN A TIME OF CRISIS

Speakers:

Rev. Ingrid Rasmussen, Lead Pastor, Holy Trinity Lutheran Church

Rev. Angela Khabeb, Senior Associate Pastor, Holy Trinity Lutheran Church

March 22, 2022 at 10:00 am Live Streamed from Hoversten Chapel, Foss Center, Augsburg University

Register in advance for this webinar: https://augsburg.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_lTMzgmL_SJi1CBGx-sCUxg

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, located just off of Lake Street in the 3rd Precinct, found itself at the heart of the explosive response to the brutal killing of George Floyd and the centuries of trauma that preceded his death. Pastors Rasmussen and Khabeb will share their insights on preaching during this time of crisis and reflect on how these experiences continue to shape their understanding of theology and ministry.

Interfaith at Augsburg and the Muslim Student Association present: "Perspectives on the Opioid Crisis in the East African Community: Part 2" March 23, 2022 at 4:00 pm Central Time on Zoom

The East African community in the Twin Cities is experiencing a crisis of opioid addiction touching the lives of youth, young adults, and their families in our community. Two community leaders will share their perspectives and how they have responded to the crisis.
