Narrative text

I was dispatched to this location to take a report of a car break-in, and items taken from the vehicle. The victim stated she parked her vehicle on the street around 17:05, and when she returned around 18:25 she discover the passenger side rear window had been smashed out, and her backpack and other items inside if it where stolen along with her Lenvo laptop computer. Her guitar was not stolen.

While I was talking to the victim she noticed on her phone that the computer was at a house (2624 8 Street south), but later it was moved to the Riverside park on 8th Street. There was no suspect(s) seen at the time of the break-in. I drove to the area where the laptop was being displayed as being in the park, but I was unable to see or locate it, and I did not see anyone in the park at the time. The victim stated that she and a male friend would go back to the park too search for her computer.
