

Top 10 Questions for Beginners in E-Service Learning

10. How do you know that students aren't out earning a fortune at Wendys?
9. How do you get students excited about paying tuition to work for nothing?
8. What do you do if your whole class wants to volunteer at the M&M's plant?
7. How do you get students to reflect on all the tax money they are saving the US government?
6. What are you going to do when an operations director calls and says that one of your students set off the sprinklers?
5. How would you apply e-service learning to a sex education health unit?
4. What if a student calls and says, "Put all your money on Waltech stock, trust me"?
3. How do you tell a student that they probably won't be volunteering for CSI?
2. How do you evaluate whether 10 hours of shampooing experimental monkeys is a worthwhile experience?
1. When you wrap-up the e-service experience, do you cater or hire a band?