

STUDY ABROAD BEHAVIOR CONTRACT

Augsburg University's Center for Global Education and Experience (CGEE) Study Abroad programs are designed to promote academic excellence through blending experiential and classroom learning; these programs allow you to be immersed in the host country's culture. They are also designed to provide a safe learning environment, one in which all students will grow and learn. When you choose to deviate from the program's rules, there are consequences for such actions.

Failure to conform to Augsburg and Study Abroad program rules will be handled by a disciplinary committee chaired by the CGEE faculty and staff in country. If the offense warrants expulsion from the program, you will be responsible for all expenses including return airfare.

Offenses that may result in dismissal from the program include:

- Use of illegal drugs
- Attending specific bars and nightclubs that you have been warned against for safety reasons
- Drunk and disorderly conduct
- Failure to inform the appropriate CGEE staff regarding travel plans
- Repeated abuse of alcohol
- Sexual harassment
- Failure to attend classes and other program activities
- Assault
- Failure to obey guidelines related to housing and home stays
- Making threats against another individual
- Theft
- Use of abusive language
- Any violation of any local law

Contract:

I understand the general safety and security guidelines as well as the behavioral guidelines and policies of Augsburg University's Center for Global Education and Experience, as indicated in this form and the program manual. I understand that the specific rules of this contract will be required for all participants in Augsburg's CGEE study abroad programs.

I understand that if I choose to stay later than the established program dates, I will be responsible for all travel arrangements and any additional expenses.

I understand that my failure to comply with any part of this agreement constitutes grounds for potential suspension or dismissal from the program and that, upon the recommendation of the CGEE staff, I may be sent home at my own expense.
