CAMPUS PROJECTS AND INITIATIVES

Wrap Up from Advent Vespers and Velkommen Jul with links to pictures on Flickr -

Augsburg's 32nd Annual Advent Vespers services at Central Lutheran Church in Minneapolis were held last Friday and Saturday. More than 10,000 worshippers welcomed the Advent season with a full liturgy, and traditional and contemporary hymns, anthems, and carols. The Augsburg Associates hosted a Scandinavian boutique and treats following the Velkommen Jul chapel on Friday. Worshippers packed the Chapel, and it was awash in Norwegian sweaters. The service celebrated the life of Nicholas, and recognized his generosity to the poor, women, and children. Faculty, staff, and guests introduced hymns that were sung in Norwegian, Swedish, Danish, Finnish, and Icelandic. See photos at

Celebrate Las Posadas on Friday. On Friday at Chapel – the last Chapel before break – we will celebrate the Spanish-speaking tradition of Las Posadas, the re-enactment of the journey to Bethlehem by Mary and Joseph. It's a wonderful reminder of all the opportunities we have to extend hospitality to our neighbors, to those in need, and to one another. Learn more about Las Posadas on Inside Augsburg at

Next Monday, Dec. 12, is last Augsburg Weekly before the holiday break. The first Augsburg Weekly for 2012 will come out on Monday, January 9.

Holiday party for staff/faculty is December 15. A party for faculty and staff is from 3-5 p.m., Thursday, December 15, in the coffee shop and student art gallery at Christensen Center. Please stop by to share in the holiday cheer, and to socialize with friends and colleagues.
