

Master of Arts in Leadership

Augsburg
College

1988 - 1989

Those who hope to lead had better understand both rationally and intuitively the people who might be their followers, and the society in which they are embedded. They had better comprehend the values of our common culture, past and present, know how our political and economic systems work, and understand how and why science has changed the world... Leaders need specialists as advisers and staff members. But leaders themselves are generalists... At higher levels of leadership they cannot achieve their full potential without considerable breadth of knowledge. Only this way can they shape the contexts for decisions where expert knowledge is used.

Introduction to the Master of Arts in Leadership

Developing Leaders for Organizations and the Community

The Master of Arts in Leadership responds to the leadership development needs of profit and not-for-profit organizations. While different in structure and purpose, most organizations seek leaders with the following qualities:

- a vision which is ethically and morally responsible, extending beyond immediate concerns;
- an understanding of how change occurs and affects the immediate environment;
- a sensitivity to the complex problems organizations face, and an ability to achieve solutions consistent with an organization's mission;
- the ability to motivate and inspire individuals and groups to work toward a common goal; and
- the ability to effectively represent the organization both internally and externally.

The Master of Arts in Leadership provides a means by which individuals aspiring to enhance their leadership skills may discover and refine these and other abilities and awarenesses fundamental to effective leadership.

Accommodating the Full-Time Work Schedule

The Master of Arts in Leadership program is designed to meet the needs and preferences of working adults. The program is based on the assumption that the men and women who enroll are employed, self-disciplined and well-motivated individuals who seek a balance of classroom experience, group interaction and individual study. Each course is, therefore, divided into periods of study, group efforts and class preparation. To accommodate this format for learning, each class meets on alternate Saturdays for three and one half hours and alternate Thursday evenings for one and one half hours.

Leadership Development Model

The Master of Arts in Leadership program promotes leadership as a process which 1) inspires cooperation among people who must compete for limited resources, 2) promotes productivity within and beyond the organization and 3) works toward progress. To accomplish this, individuals aspiring to positions of leadership must possess three key attributes: a sense of vision, the ability to persuade and the ability to direct action. Underlying these attributes is a broad range of abilities and awarenesses. These abilities and awarenesses, outlined in the diagram on page 7, serve as specific outcomes for the Master of Arts in Leadership. Augsburg's model of leadership development is designed to assess, promote, enhance and refine these capabilities within the individual.

Community of Learners

Essential to the goals of the Master of Arts in Leadership is participation in a community of learners. Learning can be enhanced when the student is involved in a stable community that provides opportunity and encouragement for active participation both in and out of the classroom. This community will be enriched by the presence of men and women who bring to the program a variety of work and life experiences. To facilitate this kind of community interaction, Augsburg encourages graduate students to make use of college facilities such as the library, meeting rooms and college center; to take the opportunity of having shared meals and coffee breaks; to participate in optional lunchtime seminars; and to attend other college activities such as music and dramatic presentations and athletic events.

Leadership Practicum

Master of Arts in Leadership students enroll in a half course called "Leadership Practicum." Students are required to enroll in this professional assessment and development course for six terms during their graduate work at Augsburg. Upon completion of the entire practicum, students receive a half course credit. In each term, one Saturday and one Thursday evening are devoted to "Leadership Practicum."

Early in the program a major component of this practicum is a full-day professional assessment to determine students' abilities and potential relative to each of the outcomes of the Leadership Development Model (see page 7). Assessment instruments include paper and pencil exercises and simulation and group experiences. Following the assessment students meet individually with a trained assessor who provides guidance in personal goal setting and in the creation of a professional development plan or "blueprint."

In subsequent terms "Leadership Practicum" includes workshops designed to meet the needs of the students in the following areas: communication skills, self-assessment measures, group processes, and other professional development topics identified by graduate students and staff.

"Leadership Practicum" concludes with a final assessment followed by an individual meeting with a trained assessor.

Curriculum Design

The Master of Arts in Leadership program is composed of 12 courses. Each course unites two or more liberal arts disciplines, encourages pursuit of the designated outcomes, and uses a variety of learning techniques appropriate to adult learners. Instructional techniques are varied, such as case study, debate, written and oral presentations and group activity. These techniques, which have had demonstrated success in advanced courses, develop targeted leadership abilities and understandings. Continual reinforcement occurs as students employ these capacities in multiple courses. Students are encouraged to see abilities and understandings as cross-disciplinary and to see content areas as integrated. The very form of the program reflects the view that the world in which we operate is complex and that dealing with it successfully requires well developed integrative ability.

Required Courses Include:

ML 510	Foundations of Leadership (to be taken during one of the first three trimesters)
ML 590	Thesis-Research Seminar I
ML 591	Thesis-Research Seminar II (These two seminars are to be taken in a student's last two consecutive terms.)
ML 592	Thesis Consultation (a half course to be taken simultaneously with ML591 and in the term in which the thesis is completed)
ML 500	Leadership Practicum (a half course which spans six trimesters)

Students are required to complete eight additional courses chosen from the following courses:

ML 511	Creativity and the Problem-Solving Process

 Fall Trimester, 1989 — Monday, August 14, 1989

Evaluation Standards

Evaluation of academic performance for the Master of Arts in Leadership will be based on number grades using a 4.0 point scale with these definitions:

- 4.0 Achieves highest standards of excellence
- 3.5
- 3.0 Achieves above basic course standards
- 2.5
- 2.0 Achieves the minimum passing standard

- P Achieves at or above the 2.0 level (not computed in grade point average)

- N Does not meet minimum course standards (no credit and non-punitive — not computed in grade point average)

- W Grade given when course is dropped

- I Incomplete grade given in case where student is unable to complete course requirements for reasons beyond the student's control (to receive an incomplete, a student must file a letter with the Graduate Program staff stating reasons for the request, the plan and date for removing the incomplete grade, the signature of the instructor, and any other necessary documentation).

Not more than two courses with a grade below 3.0 will count toward the degree. Not more than two courses with a grade below 2.0 can be repeated. Only the credits and grades earned the second time are counted in the grade point average.

Academic Policies

Academic Probation and Dismissal

Students must maintain a 3.0 cumulative grade point average. If a student falls below a 3.0 average, the student will be placed on probation for the following term. A 3.0 cumulative grade point average must be restored in order for a student to be removed from probation. If a student receives a grade of N in a course, the student must petition successfully with the Graduate Program Committee before being permitted to continue in the program. A plan for the student to follow would be outlined at that time. If the cumulative grade point average again falls below 3.0, the student may be dismissed from the program by the Graduate Program Committee. Students also may be dismissed by the Graduate Program Committee for behavior detrimental to the program such as a gross violation of college policy (as published in the Student Guide). Dismissal would occur only after established procedures were followed.

Credit for Prior Education, Training and Experience

Due to the interdisciplinary nature of the courses in the Master of Arts in Leadership program, it is unlikely that courses taken elsewhere may be substituted for a particular course in the curriculum. Students may petition the Graduate Program Committee for approval of any variation in the curriculum including the transfer of credit or the receipt of credit for other training.

Credit and Contact Hours

Each graduate course in the Master of Arts in Leadership program is the equivalent of four semester credits or six quarter credits. Students meet in class a total of 30 hours (excluding finals) and are responsible for a significant amount of individual study and preparation.

Enrollment Policy/Leaves of Absence

Students may take either one or two courses each trimester. Enrolling in two courses per trimester enables a student to complete the program in two years. All students are required to complete the program within four years. Extensions beyond four years will be considered on the basis of petition to the Graduate Program Committee. Students who leave the program for more than one term must request a leave of absence in writing from the Graduate Program Committee.

Last Date to Withdraw from Class

The last date on which students may withdraw from a class and receive a "W" on their records is the date of the eighth class session.

Financial Aid

In a number of ways, students may receive assistance in meeting Graduate Program costs. Enrollment in two courses per trimester allows the student to be classified as full-time. One course is considered half-time enrollment. The Financial Aid Office (330-1046) will assist students in assessing financial need and constructing an aid/payment program from available alternatives, including the following:

Company Tuition Assistance Programs

Many companies, agencies and corporations offer full or partial tuition assistance to employees who participate in work-related or degree-related college programs. Augsburg College provides several payment plans by which employees may handle tuition reimbursement.

Federal and State Aid Programs

The Financial Aid Office will assist students in determining eligibility for any Federal or State grant or loan programs available to graduate students. Determination of eligibility will be based on standard nationally accepted forms and methodologies including:

- Family Financial Statement (FFS)
- Financial Aid Form (FAF)
- Graduate and Professional Scholastic Aid Service

Funded Scholarships

Augsburg actively pursues outside funding for special scholarships to facilitate the participation of qualified candidates with limited financial resources. The availability of such scholarships enables the program to guarantee the participation of individuals of limited financial means as well as individuals working for volunteer agencies and other organizations not likely to provide tuition reimbursement.

Alternative payment plans will be available to all students for the payment of tuition.

Veterans of Military Service

Augsburg College is approved by the State Approving Agency for Veteran's Training. Veterans should contact the Registrar's Office about completion of the enrollment certification and forwarding other information to the Veteran's Administration.

About Augsburg

History

Augsburg was the first seminary founded by Norwegian Lutherans in America. Named after the confession of faith presented by Lutherans in Augsburg, Germany, in 1530, Augsburg opened in September 1869 in Marshall, Wisconsin and moved to Minneapolis in 1872.

Accessibility

Augsburg College has made a major effort to become one of the most accessible campuses in the region. Skyways, tunnels and elevators provide accessible connections between 9 of the 14 major buildings — student housing towers, College Center, main academic and administrative halls, the library and music building. In addition, there is a program for students with learning or physical disabilities.

Church Affiliation

Augsburg is a college of The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. About 59% of the students are Lutheran, 14% other Protestant and 19% Roman Catholic. Several other affiliations are represented among students and faculty.
