Planning Sheet: GRADUATION SKILLS REQUIREMENTS

These requirements were implemented for Fall 2008. Please talk with your faculty advisor for information.

Graduation skills, including the Quantitative Reasoning requirements, are completed as follows. Graduation skills in Critical Thinking, Writing, Speaking, and Quantitative Reasoning are required for graduation. Critical Thinking is embedded in all majors. Plans for completion of other graduation skills are determined by the major department. Consult your department chair or faculty advisor to select appropriate courses to meet the Quantitative Reasoning (QR) graduation skill. QR is satisfied by completing one (1) Quantitative Foundational course (QF) and one (1) Quantitative Application course (QA), or one (1) combined QFA course. The most current information on Graduation Skills can be found in the Augsburg College catalog at www.augsburg.edu/catalog/.

Transfer students must consult an advisor about potential adjustments to their course requirements to fulfill each graduation skill.

Sample Four-Year Plan (B.A.)

This is a possible plan for the Bachelor of Arts in Medieval Studies, though there are many configurations of courses. This major consists of 9 courses, plus two semesters of Latin. Students are encouraged to consider their options regarding an additional major or minor(s). Some closely related supporting fields include history, philosophy, English, art or religion. It is also recommended that students pursue a study abroad opportunity.

- The major requires a 300-level literature course, which requires ENL 220 or ENL 221 or a 200-level literature courses as a pre-requisites. A 200-level literature course will also complete a Humanities LAF requirement.
- Students are encouraged to participate in a related short-term study abroad experience. Short-term trips are offered during the summer, to France or Turkey/Greece in alternating years. Talk to Professor Phil Adamo for more information.
- Latin must be taken through the ACTC program, or another approved institution. It will complete the Modern Language requirement, but students are encouraged to take another language such as German, French or Spanish.

What can I do with a Medieval Studies major?

A Medieval Studies major develops skills in critical thinking, speaking, and writing. There are many career options, some of which may require additional education or training. Many students pursue graduate or professional education. Some positions include:

Actor	Curator
Appraiser	Entrepreneur
Archivist	Executive
Attorney	Librarian
Clergy	Professor
College Administrator	Writer

For more information on possible careers in this major, please talk with your faculty advisor, and also the Center for Service, Work and Learning.
