

Global Social Work Communities: Emerging Challenges, Interwoven Solutions

Global Social Work Communities: Emerging Challenges, Interwoven Solutions, Thursday, May 5
8:00-8:30: Registration, East Commons, Christiansen Center
8:30-10:00: Global Social Work Communities: Emerging Challenges, Interwoven Solutions; Welcome and Panel followed by roundtable discussions
Breakout session 1: 10:15 – 11:15
Education: Room OGC 202	Research/Practice: Room OGC 103	Macro: Room OGC 112
	Formal Women Leaders: A Case Study of Uttarakhand State: Nivedita Mishra Thapliyal	Dynamics of Sustained Use and Abandonment of Clean Energy Systems: Nishesh Chalise
Breakout session 2: 11:30 – 12:30
Education: Room OGC 202	Research/Practice: Room OGC 103	Macro: Room OGC 112 (Skype)
Addressing the Enigma of MSW Field Placements for International Students: Kerry Doyle, Terri Lee, Renee Michelsen	Social Work Response in Policy and Practice for Social Well-being Across Global Cultures: Ngho Tiong Tan	Integration for health care and social work with older people a new theme for China: Johnston Wong
12:30-2:00: Lunch & Poster Session, OGC Foyer and OGC 100
Breakout session 3: 2:00 – 3:00
Education: Room OGC 202	Research/Practice: Room OGC 103	Macro: Room OGC 112
Environmental Social Work in Education: What's an Instructor to do?: Nishesh Chalise & Christina Erickson	How to cope with being recognized as a "Northerner" – a study on subjectification among young people in the North of Norway: Anne-Marith Rasmussen
Breakout session 4: 3:15 – 4:15 PM
Education: Room OGC 202	Research/Practice: Room OGC 103	Macro: Room OGC 112
The Integration of Empowerment Practice in Mental Health: Peer Specialist Services Across Continents: Melissa Hensley	Refugee Migration: From Human Rights Law to Human Rights Practice: Ogden Rogers	Global Ethics for a Global Age: Questions to Consider Bibiana Koh & Lois Bosch
4:15: Evaluations/CEU Day 1 Pick-up

Global Social Work Communities: Emerging Challenges, Interwoven Solutions, Friday, May 6
8:00-8:30: Registration, OGC Foyer
Breakout session 5: 8:30-9:30
Education: Room OGC 202	Research/Practice: Room OGC 113	Macro: Room OGC 114
Using reading passages about local birds to teach reading: literacy as a tool for economic development: James Kirk, Mary Kirk & Robert Jay Palmer	Evidenced-based Practice as Good Science: Where Direct Practice Professionals are Effective Empiricists and Addressing the Issue of Research Integrity over Time: Keith Rinier	Disability and Child Maltreatment: Ritual Killings and The Fate of Albino Children in Tanzania: Oswald Shanalingigwa
Breakout session 6: 9:45-10:45
Education: Room OGC 202	Research/Practice: Room OGC 113	Macro: Room OGC 114
Society entrepreneurship and social innovation as an approach in social work: Karl-Johan Johansen	Informing Team Knowledge and Practice in Social Work and Nursing: A Qualitative Literature Review: Rusudan Kilaberia, James Friedman, Douglas Wholey	Dual Relationships Across Cultural Boundaries: Lois Bosch & Laura Boisen
Breakout session 7: 11:00-12:00
Education: Room OGC 202	Research/Practice: Room OGC 113	Macro: Room OGC 114
Use of Relational Model in Field Education of Social Work in Chinese Cultural Context: A Critical Reflection: Timothy Chen	Self Construals : Experiences of Two Generations of Hmong in Work and School: Pa Der Vang	How Social Work Principles Inform Grassroots Community Development in Bolivia: a Case Study from Mano a Mano International Partners: Marilyn E. Vigil & Mary Martin
12:00-12:30: Evaluations/CEU Day 2 Pick-up		