MSW Forum - First meeting of 2012-2013!

Saturday, October 6, 12:10-1:00 p.m.
Room: Lindell Library, Room 301

Come meet your fellow classmates (both foundation and concentration year) and help plan this year's MSW Forum agenda! Everyone is welcome. Please bring your own lunch; beverages will be provided.

The MSW Forum is the MSW program's student directed organization. The purpose of the MSW Forum is to facilitate communication between social work students and the social work department, as well as provide the opportunity for student participation in department governance, curriculum development and program improvements. Forum members also plan student activities and events. Last year, for example, the MSW Forum coordinated Augsburg's participation at Social Work Day at the Capitol.

Augsburg for Adults Noontime in the Library!

Qualtrics - This is a survey product that is available to all students and can be a powerful tool for research. Come and learn the ease and flexibility of this survey tool. Learn how to login, get started and experience some of the robust features it has to offer.

Webmail - This product is the email system we use at Augsburg. There are many ways to utilize Webmail beyond just basic emailing. Come find out what they are!

Atomic Learning - This is a collection of online training video tutorials for students. Come and learn how to access videos to teach you how to use everything from Word and Excel to Photoshop and Google Docs.

Stop by for one Tapa or all three! Please RSVP to Holley Locher at locherh@augsborg.edu or 612-330-1763 by Friday, November 2. Questions? Contact Holley Locher.

Parking Permits

If you have yet to receive your 2012-13 parking permit, stop by the Department of Public Safety to pick one up (located on the link level of Urness Hall behind the Christensen Center) or call 612-330-1717 to inquire. Your graduate student permit is valid for lots D, G, J, & L (on weekdays from 7am-5pm, lot parking for WEC/Grad permits is only available in the reserved WEC/Grad spaces in lot L).

BSW News

Field Safety Event

All juniors attended a mandatory Field Safety Training Meeting. The meeting covers student behaviors that promote safety in the field as well as expectations of the agencies.

BSW Forum, first meeting, Sept. 27 at 5:30 p.m.

BSW Forum is a committee of the Social Work Department comprised of students, faculty and staff that provides valuable input to the administration of the Social Work Department. The meeting convened over tacos (chicken, steak, carnitas, barbacoa, vegetarian-all gluten free!) from Chipotle. On the side was guacamole and chips.

Agenda:

- Meeting Times: Confirm meeting times for entire year. The Thursday 5:35 meeting time was affirmed by the committee for fall semester.
- Augsburg MSW info session for Augsburg BSW students: Seniors reps Maggie Sponsel and Lisa Diorio to get sense of when is the best time for seniors to have a presentation by the MSW program. Maggie and Lisa to draft official letter.
- Social Work Awareness Week: Last year it was a successful informational event. This year it will be done in March, pre-registration.
- BSW Student for Faculty Search: Various names were floated. Senior Grace McLagan was designated the BSW member of the Faculty Search Committee.
- Debt forgiveness information coordinated with Theater Dept. "Debt" show: As the Theatre Department promotes "Debt," the SWK Dept. will figure out ways to promote debt forgiveness.
- Sophomore Event: Scheduled for November 8 at 5:45 p.m. Zora Rabb and Sara Huffman will represent people from the future.
- Professional Panel: Senior coordinators to get new Professional Panel Manual soon. Process of selecting practice areas of interest will start shortly thereafter.

Forgotten, but should have been on the agenda: STUDENT ISSUES. If you have any issues, please tell your BSW Forum Reps.

Senior Representatives: Lisa Diorio, Grace McLagan and Maggie Sponsel

Junior Representatives: Sara Huffman, Nicole Lach and Zora Rabb

Might be selecting a sophomore soon.

Phi Alpha Omicron Delta 2012 – 2013: Membership Process Starting

Phi Alpha Omicron Delta Omicron Delta has opened its membership for the upcoming year. The Phi Alpha Executive Board will be contacting students soon who qualify to join.

Phi Alpha President: Stephanie Nelson

Seniors: Finish & Submit Graduation Applications

There are still some seniors who have to complete their graduation applications. To get invited to Commencement and get the FINAL audit on requirements remaining you have to fill out the form and return it to the Enrollment Center. See your advisor to complete the form.

Mexico Semester in Spring

The deadline for application is October 15 . Maybe not. Contact Margaret Anderson at CGE. The application process also involves signatures from the Social Work Department. And you know how hard it is to find anyone around here when you need them.

Upcoming Events & Opportunities

Are you an empathic, trustworthy individual? Are you looking for a meaningful volunteer opportunity with a dynamic team? Do you want to give back to others who are struggling with their mental wellness?

If you answered yes to any or all of these questions, the Consumer/Survivor Network of MN wants you!

CSN is looking for recovery-minded individuals to volunteer as phone operators on our new metro-based Warmline. A Warmline is a telephone line that provides assistance to individuals who are not experiencing mental health crisis but who are seeking 1:1 support. As a volunteer operator, you will receive training from high-level CSN staff in peer engagement techniques, empowerment practices and advanced-level listening skills.

If you are interested in applying for this position or would like more information, please contact Rachel Voller at 651-236-8473 or rachel.voller@mhcsn.org.

Project for Pride in Living is seeking an experienced Youth Program Supervisor. The position is responsible for development, oversight and facilitation of multiple in-school and after-school programs at Partnership Academy, and providing direct service to summer programs. Provide English-Spanish translation.

Strommen Executive Speaker Series Featuring Sally Smith, CEO of Buffalo Wild Wings November 15, 5:00-6:30pm

We all recognize there is a "glass ceiling" in many organizations. For example, only about 3% of all publicly held corporations are led by women. From 1996 to 2012, the time in which Sally Smith has been CEO of Buffalo Wild Wings, the restaurant chain has grown ten-fold from 70 units to more than 800.

For more information contact David Schwain, assistant professor of business administration, at schwain@augsborg.edu. Following the Speaker Series, there will be a free pizza reception afterwards in the East Commons.

Augsburg Graduate Admissions and Undergraduate Admissions hiring students

Graduate Admissions is seeking to fill up to 15 hours per week between 1-2 workers. The position starts in October and is not limited to work-study eligible students. Day, WEC, and Grad students are all encouraged to apply.

Admissions is seeking to hire up to two student employees to serve as student assistants. Each position will be for approximately 7-15 hours/week. It is the practice of this department to retain student workers who meet/exceed job performance expectations from year-to-year.

Essential job duties include, but are not limited to: Providing general office support including data entry, processing applications, filing, event planning and execution, must be comfortable talking to prospective adult students on the phone.

To apply for either positions, visit: https://augsborg-openhire.silkroad.com/epostings/index.cfm?version=1&comp_any_id=16314
