

Our Keynote

Karen Kelley-Ariwoola is Vice President of the Community Philanthropy Department at The Minneapolis Council of Foundations (MCF). In 2007, she completed a term as the Interim President & CEO. Karen is engaged both locally & nationally on issues related to social justice work of MCF. Karen is passionate about advocating for the needs of families & youth & has spent her entire career in service to community.

In her capacity as V.P., Karen has oversight for the Foundation's unrestricted grant-making ($5 – 7 million, annually) & special initiatives. This includes, oversight for the flagship education initiative Destination 2010, the Foundation's legislative initiative on Early Childhood Education & the major public affairs convening forum, Minnesota Meeting.

Karen serves on a number of boards including: Chair of The MCF, Governance Chair of the Association of Black Foundation Executives, & ex-officio member of the Minneapolis Youth Coordinating Board. She is also co-chair Mayor R.T. Rybak's Youth Violence Prevention steering committee.

Karen holds a Master's Degree from DePaul University, Chicago & a B.S. degree from Western Illinois University. Karen resides in Minneapolis with her husband Joseph & sons Solomon (13) & Samuel (11).
