WE ARE CALLED | AUGGIES

AUGSBURG UNIVERSITY

A welcoming, faith-based campus nestled in a vibrant and eclectic Minneapolis neighborhood, Augsburg offers more than 50 undergraduate majors and nine graduate degrees to nearly 3,500 diverse students. Augsburg is committed to service-learning, experiential education, intentional diversity, and the exploration of vocation. Augsburg is shaped by its urban and global settings, and defined by excellence in the liberal arts and professional studies.

A university of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, Augsburg University is an equal education and employment institution.

TRIO/Student Support Services serves all program participants without regard to race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, religious belief, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, or marital status.

TRIO

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

First awarded in 2001 and funded by the U.S. Department of Education and Augsburg University, TRIO/Student Support Services (SSS) provides individual and group services to 160 students annually, so that they may overcome class, social, and cultural barriers to complete their education.

AUGSBURG UNIVERSITY

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

Augsburg TRIO/SSS participants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents or refugees pursuing their first bachelor's degree with a commitment to their college success. Participants are expected to participate in TRIO/SSS throughout their enrollment at Augsburg University. Prior to program admission students must demonstrate academic need for services and meet at least one of the following criteria:

- Low-income student: a student whose family meets federal income eligibility guidelines as verified by Augsburg University
- First generation college student: a student whose (custodial) parents have not received a baccalaureate degree, or a student who did not regularly live with or receive support from a (custodial) parent
- College student with documented disabilities as defined in the Americans with Disabilities Act and verified by the Augsburg Center for Learning and Accessible Student Services (CLASS) office

Augsburg TRIO/SSS also selects 25 incoming first-year, TRIO-eligible students to participate in its Summer Bridge component.
