

Using InterviewStream

Who really gets the job? The best qualified? The smartest candidate? Not necessarily! Most of the time, it's the person who is able to best sell his or her skills to employers in a professional and effective manner during the interview.

Before heading into your next interview, spend 30 minutes using our newest technology: InterviewStream!

To get started:

- To use InterviewStream, you can either:
 - Conduct a virtual interview using your own computer and webcam. You must have a pc with a webcam to do this.
 - Schedule an appointment to conduct a virtual interview in the Center for Service, Work, and Learning.
 - Check out a webcam in the Center for Service, Work, and Learning to use on your own computer.
 - Check out a Mac lab top in the Lindell Library and conduct your interview in a private room on the third floor of the library, room 302. This will only work on a Mac, and you must be sure to use an Ethernet connection rather than a wireless connection.
- Go to www.augsburg.interviewstream.com.
- Click "Create Account."
- If you have not registered with InterviewStream , complete the sign up form profile and select your own username and password.
- If you have already registered with InterviewStream prior to the interview, please log in under "Already Have An Account".
- Once logged in..... Click on conduct interview.
- Choose the interview you would like to practice with. You can either choose a preset interview by clicking "choose this interview," or you can customize your own interview by clicking "customize your own interview." Customizing your own interview with allow you to pick questions that relate to your field of study.
- Adjust the webcam and volume on computer screen before beginning the interview. Remember to speak loudly so your voice is recorded.
- The interviewer will ask you a question and you can then respond. When finished with your response, click the mouse and it will stop recording.
- After each question, you can either "retry" the response, "skip" and come back to the question, "review" to see your response, or choose "OK" to move on.
- When the interview is complete, you will receive an email with a link to view your responses and you are then able to email your interview to a career counselor to review and give feedback.
