Teach English in Hong Kong or Macau

If you are a U.S. citizen with a college degree, you may be eligible to teach for up to two years in a university in Hong Kong or Macau.

The Association for International Practical Training (AIPT) is partnering with the Hong Kong-America Center to offer paid positions for Americans who are native English speakers.

If you want the chance to travel to the Pearl River Delta region, where East truly meets West and modernity is coupled with proud Chinese heritage, apply today! Applications are due by February 15, 2010. To learn more, visit <http://www.aipt.org/programs/Teach/hongkong.htm>

Internship Highlights

National Wildlife Federation's Campus Ecology Program is currently accepting applications for our Midwest Climate Action Network Fellowship!

Undergraduate students in MI, OH, WI, IN, MN and the city of Chicago are encouraged to submit applications if they are interested in working with multiple colleges and universities to assist in collectively reducing greenhouse gas emissions both on campuses and in some cases, specific cities. Timeframe/Compensation: The Fellow will serve a term of 2 semesters, Spring 2010 and Fall 2010, and receive a stipend of $2000.00 for their work. Gain professional experience, learn more about the youth climate movement and help be the change.

For further information, please visit : www.nwf.org/fellows
Deadline to apply is December 20, 2009.

Thrivent Financial is offering a Social Entrepreneurial Case Competition in April 2010. They are seeking a few Auggies! The purpose of competition is to explore the arena of sustainable, long-term solutions to pressing social needs. The competition offers interested student teams the chance to examine, analyze, and ...present recommendations on a current societal issue requiring a sustainable solution. A great way to jump start your chances for a corporate internship with Thrivent, not to mention a nice addition to your resume.
