

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO | School of Nursing and Health Professions

DOCTOR OF PSYCHOLOGY DIVERSITY SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The USF PsyD program is founded on values of social justice, health equity, and cultural responsiveness in teaching, clinical work and research endeavors.

We are pleased to invite eligible prospective applicants to apply to our DIVERSITY SCHOLARS PROGRAM.

THIS TWO-DAY PROGRAM INCLUDES:

- Roundtrip transportation and accommodation for two nights in San Francisco
- Dinner with current PsyD students
- Meet with key USF leadership including the Dean, University President, PsyD faculty, and Students.
- Roundtable discussion with PsyD professionals and practicing Psychologists
- Listen to presentations related to resources and support available for graduate students (i.e.Scholarships, financial aid, student associations and academic support offices)
- Participate in Student-led Campus tour
- Complete final rounds of interview for admissions

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Submission of all required materials for the PsyD admissions application (Only applicants who submit an application by the general deadline will be considered and preference is given to individuals who apply by the early consideration deadline: 12/2/17)
- From an ethnic/racial group that is traditionally underrepresented in psychology; or
- Part of another historically underrepresented group; or
- Bilingual/multilingual

TO APPLY

- Write a 250-300 word essay Discussing why it is important to increase diversity in the field of psychology and how you plan to contribute to this effort as a clinical psychologist?
- Submit your response by e-mail to sonhpadmissions@usfca.edu by 5 PM PST on January 2, 2018.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Phone: 415-422-2806

Email: health@usfca.edu

Visit: usfca.edu/nursing/psyd