ADMINISTRATIVE LEADERSHIP

Director of General Education, Augsburg University, 2012-2019

Reporting to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, I led the development, implementation, and assessment of Augsburg's core curriculum, which encompasses the four years of a student's college career and embeds skills development and co-curricular components. This work required wide collaboration across a complex campus, with degree programs for undergraduates, transfers, graduates, and adults. In this position, I led multiple teams, including the General Education Design Team, and served on the Academic Affairs Committee, Assessment Committee, University Committee on Student Success, University Committee on Enrollment Management, University Committee on Adult Programs, and other ongoing and ad hoc groups.

Selected Accomplishments:

- Led a transparent, faculty-driven review and revision of the College's general education program to incorporate more interdisciplinary, problem-based and integrative learning (2015-19)
- Led the process for developing and adopting Institutional Student Learning Outcomes (2014)
- Led faculty planning and design teams for First-Year Seminar Pilots (designed around "big questions") and Signature Work (2016, 2017)
- Collaborated on the development of campus-wide interfaith initiatives, funded by a NetVUE chaplaincy grant (2015-17)

Chair, Humanities and Fine Arts Division, 2004-2008

Selected Accomplishments:

- Guided the faculty in the Humanities and Fine Arts Division through the process of implementing a new core curriculum
- Mentored faculty in the division undergoing third-year, tenure or promotion review and supervised the departmental review process

Chair, History Department, Augsburg College, 2000 – 2009, 2019 (interim)

Selected Accomplishments:

- Expanded the undergraduate major to include an evening and weekend track for working adults
- Worked with colleagues to define the department's focus on public and community-engaged approaches and pedagogies
- Led the department's first effort to develop student learning outcomes and assessment strategies
- Formed relationships with key community partners, including the Minnesota Historical Society, and launched the continuing partnership with the Minnesota History Day
- Collaborated with the National AP Board and public school teachers to develop and host summer institutes for teachers of AP History

Coordinator, Associated Colleges of the Twin Cities Women's Studies Program, 2000-2002 (joint program among Augsburg, Hamline University, University of St. Catherine, and University of St. Thomas)

Selected Accomplishments:

- Led ACTC campus representatives through program review
- Secured increased funding from the ACTC provosts and deans during a period of campus downsizing
- Led the redesign of the four-college curriculum, focusing on the senior seminar and mid-level theory course
- Launched a four-college assessment plan
- Developed articulation agreements with area community colleges

Coordinator, Women’s Studies Program (1997-2001) and Founding Director, Women’s Resource Center (1999-2001)

Selected Accomplishments:

- Led the development and expansion of the Women’s Studies program in its early years by recruiting faculty to serve on the committee and develop courses;
- Convened multiple focus groups to envision a campus Women’s Resource Center and launched the first programming for students, staff and faculty
- Nurtured relationships with alumni and Augsburg’s Office of Institutional Advancement to secure a $100,000 naming grant for the new Women’s Resource Center
